AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS
R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of PATENTS
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
NO. 70 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST.,
BOSTON.
AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries.—Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patens or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.
This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below give proof that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.
All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors.
TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

Late Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, February 8, 1858.
"Mr. R. P. Eddy has made for me THIRTEEN applications, on all but ONE of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges. JOHN TAGGART."
From Sept. 17th, 1857, to June 17th, 1858, the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made, on thirty rejected applications, SIXTEEN APPEALS, EVERY ONE of which was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

"It is with singular satisfaction that I hand a bottle of your Cod Liver Oil to a consumer, it is so sweet and beautiful" says HOBBELL, Chemist, of Philadelphia.
"It is so sweet that I drink it from the bottle without desiring to conceal its taste," says CUSHMAN, Chemist, New York.

HAZARD & CASWELL'S
PURE AND GENUINE
LIGHT STRAW COLORED MEDICAL
COD LIVER OIL,
PREPARED FROM SELECTED
LIVERS ONLY.
The universal demand for an article of Cod Liver Oil that could be depended upon as strictly pure and scientifically prepared, having been long felt by the Medical Profession, we were induced to undertake its manufacture at the FISHING STATIONS, where the fish are brought to land every few hours, and the livers, consequently, are in great perfection. Its manufacture is personally superintended by our Mr. Caswell, and every gallon made is closely scrutinized.
We therefore combine the advantages of using perfectly fresh and healthy livers, with scientific and careful preparation, and feel assured that practitioner and patient alike, will hail this accession to the list of reliable remedies with satisfaction.
It is a well known fact that nearly all the Oil brought to market, even the light colored, has been prepared by fishermen themselves, using all livers indiscriminately in its preparation, while a large proportion of the livers, even in a fresh state, are diseased, and are always rejected by us. They generally also keep the livers for one or more days, until partial decomposition occurs, and then if the result is sour, they counteract it by the addition of potash or soda. These differences, while they are of the utmost importance, cannot be detected, except by the most practised observer, without chemical analysis.—This is the history of nearly all the light-colored Oil in market, and is even more true of the dark Oils; therefore, the only possible safeguard to the consumer is to obtain Oil prepared under the personal supervision of a chemist.
No argument is needed to prove the value of Cod Liver Oil, in its pure state, as a remedy. The fact is so generally admitted, as to render such a work unnecessary.
As a remedy for the class of diseases for which it is recommended, it has no rival. Its efficacy probably depends upon—
1st. Its highly nutritive qualities; its recommencing a fattening agent, developing the muscular strength, and increasing the quantity an d quality of blood; stimulating the action of the liver, and increasing the power of digestion.
2d. The combined action of the several remedial agents which exist in the Oil, in a state of combination, and which act more efficiently than when artificially combined; Phosphorus, Magnesia, Lime, Soda, Iron, and the "Gaduin" of Dr. De Jongh, are the most conspicuous.
The result is, that while the nutritive process is going on, fortifying the system, and strengthening the whole organization, the medicinal properties are removing from the system the accumulated tuberculous matter, (if any,) and preventing its formation, if not already existing.

TESTIMONIAL
From Professor A. A. Hayes, State Assayer of Massachusetts:
GENTLEMEN:—I have subjected to chemical analysis the Cod Liver Oil prepared and put up for sale by Messrs. Hazard & Caswell of Newport, R. I. It proves to contain, unaltered, the Iodic compounds, essential to efficiency of action; and in comparison with the finest specimens I have seen of foreign or domestic origin, it takes the highest place.
The importance of having a reliable source from which the valuable remedy, in a state of purity, can be obtained, leads me to recommend, with confidence, this excellent article.
Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., Assayer to State of Massachusetts.
The testimony of every Resident Physician corresponds with the opinion of Professor Hayes, viz.:
James V. Turner, M. D., Theo. C. Dunn, M. D., David King, M. D., H. B. Turner, M. D., Daniel Watson, M. D., W. Argyle Watson, M. D., Samuel W. Butler, M. D.
Professor Parker, in the "American Medical Monthly," says:—
"We have had patients use it, who had tried almost every manufacturer's oil, and give this the decided preference. It is easily digested, and does what is expected of it. It is of a light straw-color, has none of the rancid fish odor, but is sweet and pleasant."
Professors Palmer and Gunn, in the "Peninsular Medical Monthly," say:
"We pronounce it to be a free from odor, color and taste, as Cod Liver Oil seemingly can be."
Our Oil, if not too long kept by the dealer, is perfectly sweet and palatable, not requiring to be manufactured into emulsions or jellies, to conceal a nauseous taste, as inferior Oils do.
The testimony of hundreds, to the same effect, can be presented, but any one acquainted with the sensible properties of the Oil will at once perceive its great superiority over any heretofore offered to the public. Be certain to observe, on the label of each bottle, the signature of Hazard & Caswell, and also upon the metallic capsule covering the cork.

John Bartlett's

MORTGAGE:

A Story of Sharp Practice.

BY LEGULEIUS QUIDAM, ESQ.

The finest farm within ten miles of Pleasant Valley is the Bartlett Homestead. It lies just at the opening of the valley from which the village takes its name. Close along the road its orchards overhang the stone wall, the line of dense branches relieved by a single inte val, where two enormous elms shade the old-fashioned house. Behind, the wide fields stretch up the gentle slope of the hill, basking in the unobstructed rays of the summer sun, and protected from wintry north winds by a moral abrupt and forest-crowned ridge behind them.

John Bartlett the elder, who died some eight or ten years ago, was one of those good-natured, easy-going souls who seem born into the world expressly to be the prey of their sharper companions. Upon such men, I have noticed, kind nature almost always bestows a species of lazy patience which must save them many a pang of the heart, and some stings of conscience. At least it was so with him. Never was any man so patiently cheated and abused as that old farmer. Every lazy vagabond that could earn a day's wages nowhere else found employment at John Bartlett's. Every strolling vagabond on the road could have a night's lodging, and the most unlimited facilities for stealing, in John Bartlett's barn. Every skinflint neighbor that liked to borrow without ever repaying, betook himself to John Bartlett. When drunken Dick was arrested for setting fire to the Pleasant Valley Hotel, in revenge for having been refused liquor there, he could not find a man in the county to go his bail, till he asked John Bartlett; and of course when he was missing and the bonds were declared forfeited, there was a heavy judgment against John Bartlett.

It was in relation to this judgment that Simon Sharp, Esq., the prosecuting attorney of Oudamou county rode over to see the farmer.

The homestead never had looked pleasanter than it did that afternoon, as the keen little attorney came around a bend in the road. He even stopped his horse to take a good look at it, and as he did a sudden thought entered his head. It never had occurred to him to covet that farm before! Now this was singular; for there were very few desirable things within the range of the attorney's experience upon which he had not at some time or other cast a longing eye. He had been a long while at it, for he was drawing hard upon his sixtieth year, and had practised in Oudamou county all his life; and it may safely be said that not many fat offices, or pleasant houses, or good fortunes had existed there since Simon Sharp came to man's estate, which had not tempted him to break the tenth commandment.

The farm hands were all working, (or "sojering") in the fields still, but the old man himself sat under one of the great elms, watching the gambols of his three youngest children, (there were eight of them in all,) and smoking his pipe as placidly as though the sheriff were altogether a fictitious personage. His eldest son, a wild youth of some nineteen or twenty years, sat on the front wall cleaning his gun, and was the first to discover the approaching visitor.

"There comes Squire Simon, father, on that old raw-boned chestnut of his; wants you to pay him that judgment, guess, and cheat the sheriff out of his fees."

Ha, ha, ha! ho, ho, ho! laughed Bartlett the elder; guess 'twil take him and the Sheriff too, to find that amount of money on these premises; more'n I can do, anyhow!" And seeing that his eldest hopeful was not disposed to extend any needless civility to the visitor, the old man himself walked down to open the gate.

In spite of his laugh, John Bartlett was a little frightened. Being in debt, he was used to; but his liabilities had never before met him in such a definite and pressing shape. Paying the judgment off he knew was utterly out of his power, and he knew too much of Squire Sharp to expect much indulgence from that quarter.

In this respect, as it seemed, he was destined to be astonished. The Squire had ridden over for the express purpose of an accommodation. He was anxious to save his friend Bartlett from being turned out of house and home, and from having his fine place sold under the Sheriff's hammer. John stared in undisguised astonishment at his new-found friend. But one thing was evident to him; delay, of some sort was intended, and delay in all things was the course most dear to Farmer Bartlett's heart.

Slowly, and with much circumlocution, the attorney unfolded his plan; which in brief, was this: He himself would get the judgment satisfied, and for the sum thus advanced, and a sufficient additional reward for his trouble in the matter, Mr. Bartlett should secure him by a mortgage on the farm. The terms of the mortgage would have been left pretty much to his own option had it not been for the farmer's son, who had drawn near, gun in hand, and stood listening to the conversation.

"How long will it lie before this mortgage comes due?" he inquired, after his father had assented to the lawyer's proposition.

"Oh, we'll make it a year, and then if your father can't pay it he shall have a year more, and so on."

"And so on?"—said the boy—"then why don't you make it five or ten year at once? He never'll pay it;" and the youngster nodded his head at his father in a way that might have been intended merely to denote him as the person spoken of—or might have been meant to emphasize the remark, by a tacit reference to his parent's peculiarities. The Squire was vexed at the interruption, but when he found that the boy was unexpectedly firm on this point, and that the old man was evidently struck with the justice of what his son had said, he did not venture to press the matter.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATION.

FOR REPRESENTATIVE TO CONGRESS,

EASTERN DISTRICT,

THOMAS DAVIS,

OF NORTH PROVIDENCE.

The Paraguay War Ended.

An arrival at New York, with dates from Montevideo to February 16, brings what is probably reliable intelligence, that the silly expedition to Paraguay will result in nothing worse than its outfit cost, and in the wear of vessels and men which so long a voyage entails. By the expenditure of about three and a half millions in purchasing, chartering and subsisting this expedition, we have obtained of Paraguay $35,000, or the promise of the payment of this enormous indemnity, ten thousand dollars being to pay for the man killed when the Water Witch was fired upon, and twenty-five thousand going to the company of which Hopkins was agent. There is a fitting littleness about everything in the case except the cost of the expedition, and it may be well to send the ships on a general tour of small annoyance to the small states of Central and South America, in order to get the prime cost of fitting it out from some or all of them.

The result proves that Mr. Bowlin was very well adapted to the negotiation on which he was sent, the chief error being in not sending him alone. We have irritated and alarmed many in South America, where it is our highest commercial interest to make friends, by sending armaments on this errand of folly, and by threatening coercion to the caprices of hair-brained traders such as Hopkins. That is not the mode in which our rising commerce with those States is to be promoted: and as to the national insult to be redressed, the very conception of such an insult in this case degrades us. Even if Paraguay were as turbulent as th greatest advocate of the late "war" would assert her to be, it is more consistent with dignity and self-respect on our part, not to bluster in turn, and to convey the idea to South American nations that we will go to war with so paltry a State as with an equal.

In all South America a vigorous infusion of our enterprise and business skill is needed, and invited. The amplest field for rich harvests lies open to us there, unoccupied and unclaimed. In Brazil our engineers are laying a railway which will introduce much more of railway laying, if we have the sense and patience to see ourselves properly introduced, and successful without trouble. Every State of that continent is able to produce raw materials for manufacture, and agricultural or natural products, in immense quantities. This is their natural market, and the place in which to exchange these for works of industry and the arts.

If this Paraguay fleet comes home as early as is anticipated, we beg that most of it may be laid up in ordinary, or laid up in almost any convenient way. If a hundred guns of it were sent to Mr. Lamar, in Nicaragua, the chances are that out illustrious envoy there would be the first to suffer from any firing which might take place—always supposing that the gun-carriages happen to go with the guns. It will be quite as well to leave them at home for some months. If temperate and able representatives were there to control any force to be sent out the case would be different, and perhaps some addition to the Gulf squadron would in that event be desirable. With naval officers competent for the most dignified and honorable service, we just now have the misfortune to possess an Executive whose mode of using arms and edge tools suggests only painful solicitude that he or his agents may hurt their several selves, not those at whom the weapons are leveled.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

The Court of Common Pleas for this county, Mr. Justice Shaw presiding, commenced its sittings for the April term, in this city, yesterday.

The Grand Jury having been sworn and charged, the docket was called, to ascertain what cases were ready for trial. The Court rendered decisions in certain cases before submitted to it, involving some points, of interest to the public at large, as well as the profession.

In the case of George Freeborn, City Treasurer of Newport, vs. Fowler & Co., on an action brought against non-residents, for peddling goods without a license, it was decided that daguerreotypes, being partially manufactured on the spot, did not come within the statute, and judgment ordered for defendants for their costs. Van Zandt for City: Sheffield for defendants.

The case of Joseph Record, vs. John H. Weeden, et. al., was for a breach of bail-bond, committed by Charles D. Weeden, in going into the premises of the United States at Fort Adams. The Court held, that the Fort being within the external limits of the jail-yard as fixed by statute, no escape was committed by entering it.

The Court then adjourned to 3 P. M.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

John Collins, vs. William Kelly. Action on instalments of a promissory note. Sheffield for plaintiff: Lapham for defendant. Tried by the Court. Judgment for plaintiff, $51,80.

John Dwelley vs. Phebe Dwelley. Discontinued.

The Grand Jury came in about 5 P M, with indictments against George Dunwell, —— Wilkinson, and three others, whose names did not transpire.

The first named, indicted for an assault and battery on officer Seattle, plead guilty, and was sentenced to the County Jail for five months.

TIVERTON.—In Tiverton the second trial resulted in the choice of Cyrenus Bliss for Senator, and in no choice for Representatives. The vote for Senator stood, Bliss, 97, Durfee 64; for Representatives, Osborne 60, Hart 52, Manchester 54, scattering 1. The meeting adjourned to next Saturday, [so our dispatch says, but this must be a mistake, as the meeting cannot be adjourned beyond seven days from the first meeting.]

The above is from the Providence Post of 11th inst. The "mistake" lies with that paper. The meeting was adjourned, as stated, it being evidently a shrewd political "dodge" to allow the present incumbents to hold over, which they will now do, under the statute.

☞ Panorama of the war in India. It should not be forgotten that there will be an exhibition this afternoon at 3 p. m. for the accommodation of schools and families, and also one at 7 3-4 p. m. Professor Young, the great American Magician will appear at each exhibition.

The SicklesCase.

TESTIMONY FOR DEFENCE.

William Badger was the first witness called for the defence—Examined by Mr. Brady—Resides in Philadelphia, is Navy Agent of the United States at the Navy Yard there; has been in that situation for two years. Knew the deceased very well and knew Mr. Sickles equally as well; have known Mr. Sickles since his return from the Court of St. James, as Secretary of Legation.

Question—Did you know what the relations between Key and Sickles were in regard to friendship or associations?

Witness—Their relations were, as far as my knowledge extended, of the most intimate character.

Question—Did you know the wife of Mr. Sickles?

Witness—I knew her very well, indeed.

Question—Were you at a dinner party given by Mr. Sickles on the 10th of February last, shortly before the decease of Mr. Key?

Witness—I was.

Question—At Mr. Sickles' private residence in Sixteenth street?

Witness—I was.

Question—Was Mr. Key at that dinner party?

Witness—He was.

Question—The guest of Mr. Sickles?

Witness—Yes.

Question—Was Mrs. Sickles at the table?

Witness—Mrs. Sickles was at that table, and Mr. Sickles also.

Mr. Brady—Did you remain there until the company left the table, and did Mr. Key also remain?

Witness—Yes.

Question—About what time did the company separate?

Witness—Approximating to 11 o'clock, I think. (To the Court.) This was on the 10th of February, I think

Question—Did Mr. Key leave before you did?

Witness—Do not think he left before I did: he left about the same time; do not think I saw him again that evening; the last time I saw Mr. Key was when he was a guest at a hop at Brown's Hotel, where I stopped.

Question—When was that?

Witness—The 11th of February, I think; the next day after dinner Mr. Key was there and Mrs. Sickles, as guests of my daughter.

Question—Did Mr. Key come there with Mr. and Mrs. Sickles?

Witness—No; I think he came a short time before them.

Not cross-examined.

John B. Haskin called—(examined by Mr. Brady)—Where do you reside?

Witness—In Westchester County, N. Y.

Question—You are a member of the House of Representatives?

Witness—Yes, sir.

Question—How long have you known Mr. Sickles?

Witness—Between fifteen and twenty years, think I was introduced by Mr. Sickles to Mr. Key in the month of March, immediately after the inauguration of President Buchanan.

Question—Did you become well acquainted with Mr. Key?

Witness—Quite so.

Question—So as to ride out with him?

Witness—Yes.

Question—You know Mrs. Sickles?

Witness—I do.

Question—How long have you known her?

Witness—About twelve years.

Question—Did you visit at the house of Mr. Sickles?

Witness—I did frequently during the session previous to the last; my lady visited there also when she was in Washington.

Question—Did you meet Mr. Key there?

Witness—I did.

Question—Was he frequently there?

Witness—He was.

Question—Do you recollect a whist party at which Mr. Key was present? I do. It was at Marshal Hoover's. This was shortly after the inauguration of President Buchanan; Mr. Key and Mr. Sickles were there; it was a party of gentlemen exclusively; all the gentlemen were acquainted with each other. Sickles on that occasion mentioned and urged his reappointment to the office which he held at the time of his death, and said that he believed the President would re-appoint him. Mr. Key thanked him for his intercession, and hoped he would persist in urging his claims for a re-appointment.

Question—How would you characterize the relations between Mr. Key and Mr. Sickles as to degree of intimacy?

Witness—Very much like the degree of intimacy existing between myself and Mr. Sickles—that of the closest and dearest.

Question—Had you a conversation at any time with Mr. Key about a correspondence between him and Mrs. Sickles?

Witness—I had.

Question—When was that?

Witness—I think the Sunday night following the correspondence; it was in the month of February or March, 1858.

Question—After that conversation did you ever see Mr. Key and Mr. Sickles together?

Witness—I think I have.

Question—Do you remember the last occasion?

Witness—It was the night of the Opera to which I have referred.

Question—Was Mr. Sickles with him at the Opera that night?

Witness—No sir, I saw them both there. Sickles came in late.

Question—Was Mrs. Sickles there?

Witness—She was.

Did you communicate to Mr. Sickles the the conversation.

I did, a part of it, not the whole.

Question—Did he make any remark indicative of his disposition toward Mr. Key.

Witness—He replied that he believed Mr. Key was an honorable man, that he had long been his friend: this conversation was in relation to the correspondence that had taken place: he said they were mutual friends, and that he had no objection to Mr. Key visiting his house when he was invited by him. This witness was not cross examined.

At a few minutes of 3 o'clock, the Court adjourned. The jury were permitted to take out door exercise in the charge of officers, but were admonished not to hold conversation with any one on the subject of the trial.

AMERICAN SCULPTURS IN ROME.—A letter from Rome to the Boston Courier says:

"Several of the American sculptors have lately changed their studios. Mr. Ives has taken the studio formerly occupied by Mr. Bartholomew; Mr. Story removed to the one vacated by Mr. Ives; while Miss Emma Stebbins has established herself in Mr. Story's old quarters. Miss Hosmer has now a studio by herself in the Margutta, and in the same street Mr. Mozier and Mr. Rogers have taken large apartments in a fine building recently erected.

Mr. Ives has lately modelled a statue of Undine; Miss Hosmer one of Zenobia; Mr. Mozier one of Esther; Mr Rogers has nearly finished modelling the colossal statue of General Nelson, for the Richmond Monument, and his statue of John Adams, ordered for the Mount Auburn Chapel, will soon be ready for shipment. Several months since he sent to the Munich Foundry the cast for the bronze doors of the Capitol, but he retains a duplicate in his studio, which attracts many visitors, and wins their universal admiration. There are nine principal compartments of the doors, representing the following passages of the life of Columbus:—Columbus before the Council of Salamanca his departure from the Convent of La Robida; his interview with Ferdinand and Isabella; his embarkation at Palos; his first landing; his first encounter with the natives: his triumphal entry into Barcelona; his return to Spain a second time in chains, and his death. The composition of each of these is very pleasing. The figures and indeed all the details of the relief work, are modelled with great beauty and truth, and with admirable distinctness."

AN OLD MAID'S HISTORY.

BY J. G. HOLLAND.

I have in memory an ancient maid,
Who earned her living at the tailor's trade—
A rare itinerant with her yearly routes
Made round about for making roundabouts.—
A jack-at-a-pinch who made the jacket pinch
By sparing evermore the mortal inch;
Who slashed the homespun in a savage way,
And gave her elbow a contemptuous play,
As it were deemed the object of her stitches
Breaches of promise—not the promised breeches.
I know her now, but little knew her then;

She saw that boys were growing up to men,
And in the counsel of her wicked wits,
Meant for mankind those "most particular fits."
How strange that those "who knew her like a book,"
And saw the vinegar within her look,
Could wonder how the lady kept so long,
Or ask what always made her crisp and strong,

This ancient maiden had been younger once,
And loved or thought she loved a dapper dunce,
Who, when a brief flirtation had expired,
Forsook the gentle charmer and retired.
They had long rides in overhanging woods,
And lengthened walks in moonlight solitudes,
At midnight seasons in the nicest room,
And interchanging sniffs of rare perfume,
And little chats and spats, and little blisses,
And lozenges, and several kinds of kisses,
Until they visited an evening lecture
Which sealed the match beyond the least conjecture.

Alas! alas! the lover was a clerk,
And had but unremunerative work,
And rarely had possession of a crown
Till like a bully he had knocked it down,
The merchant watched his till, till he was balled,
And kept his tally and retaliated;
Merchant and clerk were bent on change, and so
To change his beat, the clerk was told to go!
And like the fickle moon he quenched his blaze,
And parted from the one a parts between two days.

TO CLARIFY SUGAR.—Put half a pint of water to every pound of sugar. Stir in the white of an egg for every five pounds of sugar, and let it boil; when it rises, put in half a teacup of water and let it boil again, and repeat this process two or three times. Set the kettle aside for fifteen minutes, then take the scum from the top. Pour off the syrup; wash the kettle, and put in the fruit you wish to preserve.

CURTIS'S CURE FOR BALDNESS.

In bringing this new article—a preventive, and sure Cure for Baldness—into notice, the proprietor has acted with extreme caution, knowing that the public, having been so often deceived by worthless compounds and preparations for the hair, are prone to pronounce—a humbug—every new thing of the kind introduced, and he has not taken this course to bring it before them until its virtues have been practically and most thoroughly tested. As a restorative remedy for Baldness it now stands unrivalled. It has been in use for about a year, during which time upwards of six hundred bottles have been disposed of, and not in a single instance, where a fair trial has been had, has it proved unsuccessful. The proprietor, who is a well-known resident of Providence, R. I., refers to his own case as a proof of its efficacy.

One year since he was entirely bald, but after the application of his Cure, the hair started out in profusion, and he has now as fine a growth as when a young man. He receives numerous like cases of a like nature, and he is permitted to refer to many well-known citizens of Boston, Providence and Worcester who have used the article with the most complete success. Its action is immediate, producing a fine growth of hair, and yet it is entirely free from any substance of a injurious nature.

It also prevents the hair from falling off, cleanses the scalp, removing dandruff almost instantaneously, and restores to the head the excessive heat with which bald persons are generally troubled.

It is certainly the best and safest preparation for the hair ever offered to the public.

Among the many certificates of its efficacy, attention is called to the following:—

PROVIDENCE, Dec. 1, 1858.

I commenced using Curtis's Cure for Baldness some five months since, previous to which time much the larger portion of my head had been bald for nine years. After a few weeks use, the hair commenced growing, and has continued since until my head is now entirely covered. I am a person over sixty years of age, and the "Cure" in my case having met with complete success, I take pleasure in recommending it, and will make the above facts personally to any who are interested and will call upon me.

ELISHA SMITH, 110 Friendship street.

And side from Mr. Samuel Woodbury, Manufacturing Jeweler of Providence, and as if known in that city:—

For some twelve years my bride was continually falling out until the top of my head was entirely bald. Some nine months since I commenced using Curtis's Cure, which soon prevented the old hair from falling and has since covered my head with a fine growth of hair. I recommend it with full confidence to all those who have lost their hair, believing it a sure remedy.

SAMUEL WOODBURY,

51 Friendship st, Providence, R. I.

From Mrs. H. M. Clarke, Millinery Rooms, corner Westminster and Eddy streets, Providence, R. I.

PROVID NCE, Nov. 29, 1856.

I have been using Curtis's Cure for Baldness, and find it to be the best article I have ever tried for promoting the growth of the hair and keeping the head in a clean condition.

MRS. REBECCA M. CLARKE.

From the Rev. J. G. Adams, of Worcester, Mass.

To whom it may concern: This may certify, that from what I have been able to learn from unquestionable sources, of the good and remarkable effects of the use of Mr. Curtis's Cure for Baldness, I am led to regard it as one of the best preparations for the restoration of the hair that has ever been introduced.

The favorable effects of the liquid, also, in cases of nervous headache, and as a cleanser and preserver of the hair, serve to render it all the more valuable. I wish this all success to all with baldness in any degree, might be able to obtain and use it.

Worcester, Dec. 17, 1858. J. G. ADAMS.

AMERICAN HOUSE, Boston, Dec. 10, 1858.

About a year since my hair commenced falling off badly; to prevent which I tried various preparations without success.—Believing I should otherwise lose my hair entirely, I was about to submit to the shaving of my head, when a friend, who had been using Curtis's Cure, strongly advised me first to give it a trial. I did so; very soon my hair ceased falling, the old hair, which before seemed dead and lifeless, resumed a healthy appearance, new hair started out, and I continue the use of the Cure with full confidence that my hair will be fully restored. It keeps the head cool, the scalp clean, and is a very desirable article for toilet use. J. Q. BRIGHAM.

NEWPORT, March 18, 1859.

I purchased two bottles of Curtis's Cure for Baldness, to stop my hair from falling out, and it has done the work completely. Any person in Newport is at liberty to refer to me who has a mind to try it, and my word for it. They will not be disappointed.

JOHN MYERS, Sergeant of Steamboat Ferry.

NEWPORT, March 29, 1859.

Since I communicated Dr. Curtis's Cure for Baldness, my hair has ceased entirely from falling out, and has been in a much strengthened. SAMUEL A. PARKER.

Medicines.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR,

PREPARED BY DR. ANFORD.

Compounded Entirely from Gums,

IS One of the best Purgative and Liver Medicines now before the public.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach causing food to digest well, purifying the blood, giving tone and health to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

One dose operated is a sure cure for Cholera Morbus, and a preventive of Cholera.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for Jaundice removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

Bilious attacks are cured, and, what is better, prevented by the occasional use of the Liver Invigorator.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite and makes the food digest well.

One dose often repeated cures Chronic Diarrhea in its worst form, while Summer and Bowel Complaints yield almost to the first dose.

One dose after eating is sufficient to relieve the stomach and prevent the food from rising and souring.

A few bottles will cure Dropsy by exciting the absorbents, bowels gently, and we take pleasure in recommending this medicine as preventive for Fever and Ague, Chill Fever, and all fevers of a Bilious type. It operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

Only one dose taken each meal will cure Dyspepsia. One dose of two tea-spoonfuls will always relieve Sick Headache.

Only one dose immediately relieves Colic, while

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

☞ Mix Water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

Price one dollar per bottle

LIVER INVIGORATOR. SANFORD'S

TESTIMONIALS.

Richmond, McHenry Co., Ill., Dec. 8, 1858.

Dr. S. T. W. SANFORD—Dear Sir:—I am here on my mission ground, and find myself under great obligation to your Medicine for bringing me here, fitted for active service. I have used it myself and given it to my family, and have found it to be all that is recommended to be—a specific for Head Ache, and Dyspepsia, and Jaundice. I have used it freely, and used it all; but am afraid if I fare as others do, I shall be obliged to test its efficacy in Fever and Ague. I have looked in several Apothecary Shops here, and do not find it; it should be here.

Very respectfully yours, &c.,

REV. L. R. LOCKWOOD.

Dec. 20th, 1858.

I have used the Liver Invigorator, prepared by Dr. Sanford, in my family during the past Summer, and have found it to be a Medicine of great value for the purposes for which it is recommended. It has also been used by others in my congregation, for whom it has received high commendation.

J. W. VAN ZOREN,

Pastor of the Reformed Dutch Church, New Lots, Long Island.

Boston, Dec 22 1858.

Messrs. M. S. Brown & Co., No 1 Court st. Boston.

Gents:—I have the pleasure to assure you that the Sanford's Liver Invigorator you purchased of you for use in my family, is considered equal to my highest expectations, and I have recommended it to many of my friends, particularly afflicted. I feel that it is almost a specific in such complaints, and am willing that you should use my name for the good of the afflicted, if by so doing they may be induced to try it and be relieved.

Assuring you of my continued health I remain, very respectfully, your ob't serv't.

JAMES G. BLAZE.

Certificate.—I have used your valuable medicine in my own family with great success and have mentioned it in the local columns of my paper. I am, generally speaking, opposed to patent medicines, but your Invigorator makes an honorable exception.—By it my wife was entirely cured of twenty years' sick head-ache. With highest regard yours most obediently,

(Signed,) VICTOR SCRIBA.

HOWARD ASSOCIATION.
PHILADELPHIA.

A Benevolent Institution, established duly specified by endowment for the relief of the sick and distressed, afflicted with Virulent and Epidemic diseases.

THE Howard Association, in view of the awful destruction of human life, caused by the prevalence of sexual diseases, and the deceptions practised upon the unfortunate victims of such diseases by pretenders, several years ago directed their consulting Surgeon, as a Charitable Act worthy of their name, to open a Dispensary for the treatment of this class of diseases in all their forms and to give Medical Advice gratuitously to all who apply by letter, with a description of their condition, (age, occupation, habits of life, &c.,) and in cases of extreme poverty to Furnish Medicines Free of Charge. It is needless to add that the Association commands the highest Medical skill of the age, and will furnish the most approved modern treatment.

The Directors of the Association, in their annual report upon the treatment of sexual diseases, for the year ending July 1st, 1858, express the highest satisfaction with the success which has attended the labors of the consulting Surgeon in the cure of Spermatorrhœa, Seminal Weakness, Impotence, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Syphilis, the vice of Onanism or self abuse, &c., and order a continuance of the same plan for the ensuing year.

The Directors, on a review of the past, feel assured that their labors in this sphere of benevolent effort, have been of great benefit to the afflicted, especially to the young, and they have resolved to devote themselves, with renewed zeal to this very important but much neglected cause.

An admirable Report on Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal Weakness, the vice of Onanism, Masturbation or Self-Abuse and other Diseases of the Sexual Organs, by the consulting Surgeon, which will be sent by mail, (in a sealed envelope,) free of charge, on the receipt of two stamps for postage.

Address, for Report or treatment, Dr. George R. Calhoun, Consulting Surgeon, Howard Association, No. 2 South Ninth street, Philadelphia, Pa. By order of the Directors,

EZRA D. HEARTWELL, President.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.

DR. DUPONCO'S Golden Periodical Pills for Females. Perfectly harmless, yet wonderfully and powerfully efficacious in correcting, regulating, and removing all obstruction from whatever cause.

All medical men know, as well as many others that no female can enjoy good health, unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health begins immediately to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptive young females. Headache, Pain in the Side, Palpitation of the Heart, Loathing of Food, and Disturbed Sleep, do most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils; and may always be used successfully as a preventive.—Price $1 per box. For sale at 132 Thames street, corner Church st reet, and at 12 Washington Square, opposite State House. Orders for the trade or addressed will be supplied at lowest manufacturer's prices. Ladies by enclosing to STURGIS & CO., Box 891, Newport Post Office, can have the Pills sent confidentially) by mail to any part of the city or country a26—

TO THE LADIES—The celebrated Dr Hughes particularly requests all ladies who may need a medical or surgical adviser, to call at his rooms, No. 13 Howard street, Boston, which they will find arranged for their especial accomodation.

Dr. Hughes having devoted over 18 years to this particular branch of the treatment of diseases peculiar to females, it is now conceded by all, (both in this country and Europe,) that he excels all the other known practitioners in the safe, speedy and effectual treatment of all female complaints.

Dr. Hughes French Renovating or Female Monthly Pills are to be had genuine only at this office.

These pills are unrivaled in efficacy and superior virtues in regulating all female irregularities. Their action is specific and certain, producing relief in a very short time. They are acknowledged to be the best in use.

The Dr. cautions the public to beware of impositions that are being practised by advertising a spurious article under some spurious or fictitious name. They are entirely useless, having been got up by miserable pretenders, who are entirely ignorant of the efficacy of medicines.

All who are in pursuit of the genuine article, had better call on the old doctor at his office, where they will be sure of getting the genuine—it only place in Boston where the genuine is for sale.

These pills can be sent to any part of the country, with directions.

The best of accommodations furnished for the sick, with kind and attentive nurses, if they wish, at a reasonable rate.

This office is strictly private, with special apartments for ladies, and is so arranged that it is impossible for patients to come in contact with each other.

Recollect the number—13 Howard street.

CONFIDENTIALLY to the afflicted.—Dr. J. B. Hughes still continues his old established, 21 Howard Street, Boston, where he can be consulted on all private complaints. All persons in any way afflicted may rely on a sure and speedy cure being performed.

Dr. Hughes has for a number of years paid particular attention to the study and practice of private diseases, and so perfect has he become acquainted with them, that, without boasting, he will warrant an effect and cure in the shortest possible time, no matter how long standing the case may be.

In offering the result of his long study and practical experience to the afflicted, he is governed by humanity only, for so long have they been deceived by miserable quack nostrums, that it is time that some healthy mode of practice should be introduced.

The old doctor professed to be eminently skilful in curing gonorrhœa, gleet, strictures, syphilis in all its stages, primary, secondary, tertiary, or hereditary, seminal weakness, nocturnal emissions, general debility, impotency, and all diseases of the urinary organs. The doctor solicits a call from all who may be afflicted with any such disease, feeling confident of success, and at a great saving of time and money to his patients.

The doctor can be consulted by letter, if the disease is accurately described, medicines will be immediately forwarded, carefully concealed.

Please remember the name and No., as Dr. Hughes has nothing to do with any other office but 13 Howard st.

P. S. The best accommodations will be furnished the sick of both sexes, with kind and attentive nurses, and at a reasonable rate

All letters requiring advice must contain one dollar, or no notice will be taken of them. Address Dr. J. B. Hughes, 13 Howard st., Boston. jy1 1y d

Medicines.

DR. DOW'S
PUBLIC AND MEDICAL HOUSE
AND OFFICE,
NO. 7. ENDICOTT-ST., BOSTON. NO. 7.

Established for the permanent cure of all Private Diseases and the Suppression of Quackery.

DR. DOW, so well known for the last fifteen years in this city, where he has confined his practice to the treatment of mercurial, syphilitic and other diseases of a private nature, is consulted above, from nine in the morning till seven in the evening. Patients must call during office hours. Office not open on Sundays.

All chronic and difficult cases, such as have existed for years, are completely and permanently cured in the shortest possible time by the Doctor's improved course of treatment.

MEDICAL ADVICE.—As it is always important to obtain the services of an experienced and skillful physician call on the celebrated Dr. Dow, No. 7, Endicott street.—Med. and Surg. Jour.

DR. DOW will say nothing of his qualifications as a Physician and Surgeon, being a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania Licentiate of the State Medical Society of N Y., and for more than twelve years a practitioner of this city, during which time he has no doubt cured more of those difficult an chronic cases (such as nothing but practical experience can ensure success) than by other physicians in Boston.

By his late improved course of practice, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Strictures, and other local affections of the urinary and seminal organs, are cured in a very few days without mercury, regard to diet or fear of exposure.

SECONDARY SYPHILIS, &c.

Scrofulous affections, ulcers in the throat or neck, nodes and caries of the bones, eruptions on the skin, and every impurity of the blood thoroughly and completely eradicated Persons afflicted with any private complaints should call as early as possible after contracting the disease, as much time and money may be saved thereby.

TO YOUNG MEN.—You who are troubled with seminal weakness, generally caused by a bad habit in youth, the effects of which are nocturnal emmissions, pains and dizziness in the head, forgetfulness, sometimes a ringing in the ears, weak eyes, &c., terminating in consumption or insanity, if neglected, are speedily and permanently cured by Dr. Dow.

TO MIDDLE-AGED OR EVEN OLD MEN, whose procreative organs have become inactive or weakened by the excesses of any kind, but especially bad habits in youth, Dr. DOW would respectfully say that from the extensive practice which he has had in treating the above complaint for over fourteen years, he is enabled to guarantee a perfect cure in all cases; that is, a restoration of those organs to their natural and healthy state. Hardly a day passes that he is not called upon to cure the above complaints, and he is happy to say that his course of treatment has invariably effected a speedy cure.

Beware of all kinds of Exhilerating Cordials, as they are of no use.

To the unhealthy, the mere mention of the name of the far-famed and justly popular physician, Dr. Dow, that he can at all times be found at home that he is surpassed by none in curing all forms of disease however protracted, ill-treated, or mercurily affected, is a consolation to his patients, and an honor to himself.—Balt. Amer.

All afflicted with private complaints, if possible, should consult Dr. Dow, whose medical education is not surpassed by any physician in the country. In his skill, honor and integrity, all may rely with safety, while most all of the medical practitioners are without honesty or responsibility, their pretensions being grounded in ignorance and assumption.—Republican Argus.

There are a great many young men whose cases have become very difficult of cure, either from neglect or ill-treatment. We would advise all such to call on Dr. Dow, of Boston, whose practical experience in certain diseases no doubt exceeds that of any other physician in America.—Journal of Health.

Dr. Dow consults with physicians, as usual, on difficult chronic diseases. Charges reasonable.

TO FEMALES.

All diseases peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities, &c., speedily and effectually removed. The efficacy of his remedies for the cure of the above affections, has been well tested in his extensive practice for the last fifteen years in this city, and never was known to fail in effecting a cure where the directions were followed a reasonable time.
